Fine Art Gallery Schedule, 2010-2011

September 2-28, 2010  Opening Reception: September 9
“East Meets West,” Faculty Photography from the Southeast Center for Photographic Studies at Daytona State College.”
Included are photographs Dan Biferie, Steve Benson, Barton Christner, Eric Breitenbach, Gary Monroe and Patrick Van Dusen.

October 7-29, 2010  Opening Reception: October 7
Ernesto Piloto, “Reflections”
Celebrating Hispanic Heritage on the Ybor Campus Cuban artist Ernesto Piloto will present several paintings that reflect on how we live, how social conditioning affects us, and how it can manipulate us. Included will be edible chocolate sculpture.

November 4-29, 2010  Opening Reception: November 9
“Symbolism,” Paintings by Dan Namingha
Coming from Santa Fe, NM, internationally renowned Native American artist Dan Namingha presents several contemporary paintings reflecting his Hopi heritage during Native American Month.

December 2-15, 2010  Opening Reception: December 2
Blake High School, “Senior Masters Certification Exhibit”
In our 11th year of collaboration, Blake High School seniors with a four-year concentration in visual art show their work at the college level. Award winners are given HCC Art Department scholarships for tuition.

January 6-28, 2011  Artists Reception: January 13
Kurt Piazza: “The Future Belongs to Ghosts”
Mixed media artist Kurt Piazza will exhibit new works in drawing, painting, photography and video installation.

February 3-25, 2011  Opening Reception: February 3
Michel Delgado, “Saying A Lot Quietly”
Senegalese-born artist Michel DelGado is an internationally renowned Art Brut, Naïf painter who resides in Key West. His exhibition is a collection of mixed media pieces created in his direct, powerful style filled with intense color, crisply painted shapes and images that evoke a childlike wonder and simplicity.

March 3-18  Opening Reception: March 3
An Artist/Instructor/Student Exhibit, Series #4
HCC Photography Instructor Suzanne Camp Crosby exhibits her work along with Photo I, Photo II and Advanced Photography students.

March 23-28  Opening Reception: March 23
HCC Ybor Festival of the Moving Image, “Currents”
During the HCC 9th annual film festival held on the Ybor Campus, the gallery will showcase contemporary digital and video projections by Santa Fe filmmaker/videographer Frank Regano.
March 29-April 5
NCECA--National Conference for Education in Ceramic Arts
In conjunction with the National Conference for Education in Ceramic Arts, HCC Ybor Gallery will present an exhibit of contemporary ceramics from across the U.S curated by HCC Adjunct Ceramics Instructor Tom Judge.

April 14-May 4          Opening Reception: April 14
37th Annual HCC Juried Student Art Exhibition
HCC students enter work created in the Fall and Spring semesters—all mediums will be judged. Winners receive scholarships from Las Damas De Arte.

May 12-June 2          Artists Reception: May 19
Mike Massaro, Sculpture
University of Tampa graduate Michael Massaro will exhibit several of his sculptures experimenting with his intense interest in the connectivity of materials and a natural curiosity of how things fit together.

June 9-July 8
“The Cuban Sandwich Show”
Leader of Tampa’s Artists and Writers Group, David Audet will curate an eclectic, mixed media, invitational exhibition for the HCC Ybor Gallery involving local and regional artists with artwork specifically created about Tampa and Ybor City.

July
TBA - Open Gallery for Student Work

August
Neighborhood Documecumentary Project, Community Stepping Stones Exhibit

September 1-28          Opening Reception: September 8
Neverne Covington, “Thought Process”
St. Peterburg artist Neverne Covington will present an exhibit of new mixed media work.